DATE OF INFO

1. On 15 March, there will be a "further consolidation" of the Peoples Front in Hungary. A Directorate of the Peoples Front will be established consisting of nine persons. Three members will represent the Hungarian Workers (Communist) Party, two members from the Small Holders Party, and one from the National Peasant Party. In addition to these Party members, the Democratic Women's Federation, the Trade Unions, and DEFOSZ (Democratic Working Peasants and Agricultural Laborers Organization) will each have one representative.
2. Simultaneously, an announcement of general elections scheduled for summer, probably July, will be made.
3. Following the elections, the government will make an effort toward "recreating Hungary in the Soviet form".
